

Birds n' Beer

2018-19 Season

September 20, 2018

Burrowing Owl Translocation: Lessons Learned

Dejeanne Doublet, Graduate Research Assistant,
New Mexico State University

October 18, 2018

Best Birding Bets:

Where & When to See Amazing Local Species

presented by Desert Rivers, Maricopa, and Sonoran Audubon Societies

November 15, 2018

Why Yellow? A Look Into the Color of Birds

Adam C. Stein, PhD,
Council On International Educational Exchange

January 17, 2019

TBD

February 21, 2019

River of Raptors: Millions Migrating to Veracruz

Eduardo Martinez Leyva, Pronatura Noroeste

March 21, 2019

Protecting Arizona's Water for Birds—and Beer!

presented by Western Rivers Brewers' Council members:
Arizona Wilderness Brewing Co. and Borderlands Brewing Co.

April 18, 2019

2nd Annual Evening with John James Audubon

May 16, 2019

Southwest Monarch Study

Gail Morris, Southwest Monarch Project

Summer Tanager.
Photo: Mitch Walters/Audubon Photography Awards

Wet your beak.

Enjoy lively, entertaining presentations about birds, wildlife, and conservation in a happy hour-style environment. Craft beer and wine available for purchase. Light snacks complimentary.

 Audubon | ARIZONA

Rio Salado Audubon Center

3131 S. Central Ave.
Phoenix, AZ 85040

5:30—7:30 p.m.
presentation starts at 6:30 p.m.

free admission

riosalado.audubon.org/events

More on reverse.

Birds n' Beer

Thank you to our sponsors
and partners:

Grass Finch/Bay-winged Bunting.
John James Audubon

Audubon Arizona

Our mission is to connect people with nature, using education, science and advocacy to protect birds, other wildlife and their habitats for the benefit of humanity and earth's biodiversity.

Rio Salado Audubon Center

3131 S. Central Ave.
Phoenix, AZ 85040

az.audubon.org
riosalado.audubon.org

More on reverse.