

Nature in Your Neighborhood!

Learn about Sonoran Desert Wildlife with Audubon Southwest's Nature in Your Neighborhood virtual presentation for Grades K – 8th.

Students learn how to use binoculars.
Photo: Audubon Southwest

Students play in a green butterfly chrysalis.
Photo: Audubon Southwest

Students learn how to plant Arizona Milkweed seeds.
Photo: Audubon Southwest

S.T.E.M. Stations

BIRDING BY SOUND

How do birds communicate? Students participate in an interactive memory game to learn local bird calls and songs.

MAMMALS OF ARIZONA

Students will observe and inspect pelts, learn about habitat conservation, and discuss the importance of species diversity

PLANTS FOR BIRDS

Students will discover common native plant species and their important role in desert ecology while learning simple plant propagation activities to improve the Rio Salado habitat and their neighborhood.

Program Availability and Costs

January 25th – May 3rd
Monday, Wednesday, Friday

Audubon Educator Video Presentation $25

Classroom Pollinator Kit $25

Audubon Educator Video Presentation + Classroom Garden Pollinator Kit $50

Title 1 Scholarships Available

Contact Information:

Corey Lycopulus
corey.lycopulus@audubon.org
602.468.6470 ext. 125

 CURRENTLY CLOSED
TO THE PUBLIC ***

Nina Mason Pulliam Rio Salado
Audubon Center

3131 S. Central Ave
Phoenix AZ, 85040

602.468.6470

Fall and Spring Hours
(September-April)

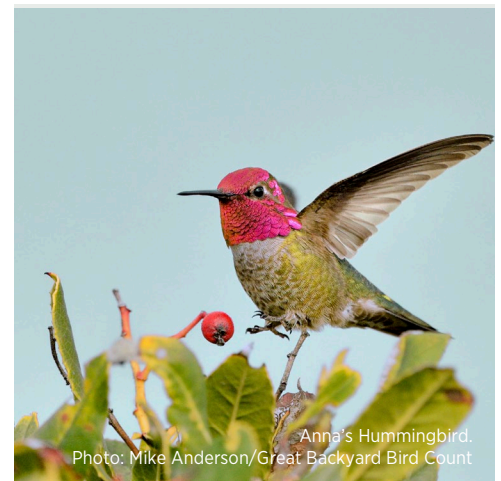

Tuesday-Friday 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Saturday 9 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Sunday-Monday: Closed

Urban Hummingbird and Downtown Owl Online Presentation

We virtually visit or you can present on your own our exciting lecturers focusing on either hummingbirds or burrowing owls that spark inquiry and connect students with nature!

Helping Our Feathered Friends

Students learn about hummingbirds or burrowing owls through an interactive presentation where students will discover simple ways to help there birds in their own neighborhood or school yard!

URBAN HUMMINGBRD PROGRAM (UHB) K-8TH grade

Students learn fascinating facts about hummingbirds and discover ways to help hummingbirds in their own neighborhoods and how to participate in community science.

DOWNTOWN OWLS PROGRAM (DTO) 4TH - 8TH grade

Students learn fascinating facts about the world's only ground dwelling raptor, to solve issues related to burrowing owls, and discover ways to help owls in their own neighborhoods and how to participate in community science.

Program Availability and Costs

January 25th - May 3rd
Monday, Wednesday, Friday

Activates/Lesson Plan (self-led) FREE
Classroom Hummingbird Kit $25
Audubon Educator Led Presentation $25
Audubon Educator + Classroom Hummingbird Kit $50
Title 1 Scholarships Available

Contact Information:

Corey Lycopulus
corey.lycopulus@audubon.org
602.468.6470 ext. 125

 CURRENTLY CLOSED
TO THE PUBLIC ***

Nina Mason Pulliam Rio Salado
Audubon Center
3131 S. Central Ave
Phoenix AZ, 85040
602.468.6470

Fall and Spring Hours
(September-April)
Tuesday-Friday 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.
Saturday 9 a.m. - 12 p.m.
Sunday-Monday: Closed